UNIVERSITY ATTENDANCE REGULATIONS

1. Minimum Attendance:

Students must maintain a minimum attendance of 75% in each course to be eligible to attend the semester examination.

2. Attendance Shortage:

Students whose attendance is below 75% may not be eligible to appear for the semester examination, subject to university regulations.

3. Medical Leave:

Students with valid medical reasons may apply for attendance consideration by submitting the required medical documents to the university.

4. Examination Eligibility:

Students must satisfy the prescribed attendance requirements before appearing for the semester Examination.

5. Attendance Improvement:

Students with attendance below the required percentag should take appropriate steps to improve their attendance and regularly attend classes.